

The Creation of Shrek

By: Danielle Stewart

Jeffery Katzenberg

- One of the founders of DreamWorks Animation
 - Co-founder are Steven Spielberg and David Geffen
- Was previously employed at Disney

Shrek's Legacy

Won the first-ever “Best-Animated Feature” Oscar

The series is the highest grossing movies from DreamWorks Animation

The Layers

1. Voice Acting

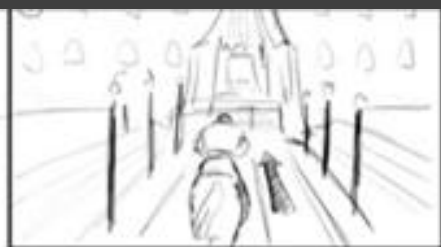

2. Storyboards

3. Editorial

4. Animation

spelling toward castle

guards on the defensive

ready to jump

mid-air

speedy getaway

approach the cave

puss hops off

hesitation

puss reassures seek to continue well... if you insist

today, I repay my debt?

guards halt

Awwwwww

Awww... cont'd.

grrr... "EN GARDE!"

Jumping puss

puss the king of fencing

Fairy godmother singing

Prince charming spinning Fiona charming leaves in for the puss... $\frac{7}{8}$

Shrek uses computer-generated imagery (CGI).

SHREK THE ANIMATED FILM
A FILM BY MICHAEL BAY

SHREK BEHIND THE SCENES

Technology Development Over Time

Shrek Two

- Development of global illumination

Shrek the 3rd

- Newer character rigs
- Improved fabric and hair movement
- Better fire and water mechanisms
- Easily controllable crowds

Notice the difference in Shrek's facial movements!

Shrek (2001)

Shrek Forever After (2010)

Soundtrack

- The soundtrack adds to story development
- They blend pop tunes with the original movie score to convey climatic moments

The End.

Works Cited

- <https://www.cinema.com/articles/462/shrek-production-notes.phtml>
- <https://nypost.com/2010/05/16/ugly-green-montrous/>
- <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Q7YCTJxfcA4>
- <https://www.awn.com/vfxworld/decade-shrek-tech>
- <https://www.cgw.com/Publications/CGW/2004/Volume-27-Issue-5-May-2004-/After-Effects.aspx>
- <https://www.awn.com/vfxworld/moving-storyboards-take-new-dimensions-previs-animated-features>